EUROPE IS NOW ARMED CAMP

Bloody Engagement at Petit Croix—French Defeat Germans.

RUSSIA MAKES MOVE

London, August 3.—A news ticker service says that in a naval battle between the German and British squadrons in the North Sea, six German warships were sunk and Great Britain lost wo.

The admiralty has no confirmation of such a report.

Berlin, August 3.—Rumors are circulated here that German destroyers have been engaged in the North Sea. The rumors say they were attacked by British craft and "gave a good account of themselves." There is no official confirmation.

London, August 3.—Naval officials admit that the British destroyers have been scouting in the North Sea, and located the German fleet Sunday night.

All information regarding the whereabouts of the fleets is refused.

Berlin, August 3.—The war office this evening confirmed the report that a French army has invaded Germany. The French forces crossed the frontier near Alt-Muensterol, a town on the Alsace-French border ten miles east of Belfort. The French advance is being opposed by the German border patrols, who are slowly retiring in the face of superior force.

According to the news received by the war office the French army of invasion includes nearly 750000 men. It is accompanied by heavy artillery and a detachment of aviators have scouted over the heads of the German forces.

Three Germans army corps have been dispatched to engage the invaders.

The French army of invasion was supported by several batteries of field artillery and a motorcycle detachment which crossed to the north of the main body. It is believed here that a general battle between the invaders and the German forces sent to oppose them will begin shortly.

Paris, August 3.—French arms have scored a victory in a sharp bloody engagement at Petit Croix. A corps of Uhlans attacked the French forces entrenched just beyond the town. The defenders replied with machine guns and mowed down the advance guard of the Germans.

The Uhlans charged several times, but were unable to withstand the withering fire of the defenders, and finally retired in disorder, leaving a number of dead on the field.

Among the wounded were some officers. The French also took a number of prisoners.

London, August 3.—Three German armies, which include 22 army corps, or nearly 1,000,000 men, are advancing in three armies on France.

One is moving through Belgium, whose territory has been violated; the second from Metz in fan shape formation, and the third from a point close to the Swiss border.

The Germans are reported to have taken Basle and to have seized the railway from that Swiss port to the French boundary.

St. Petersburg, August 3.—Russian troops have crossed into Germany at several points on the border, and Cossacks have raided the German custom house.

The Russians drove the Germans back from Eqdtkuhnen, and a column of artillery with infantry supports now holds that port. There has been much skirmishing, but no serious clash between the forces.

Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholavitch has been named as chief general commanding the army, disposing of the report that the Czar planned assuming personal command.

Berlin, August 3.—Libau, Russian naval port on the Baltic, is in flames today.

The German cruiser Jugsberg reported by wireless that she was bombarding the town. A Russian cruiser defending Libau was engaged by the German warship.

London, August 3.—Germans fired on the French post at Petit Croix and two German officers were killed at Ronarey Boxon, Frence, when a force advanced on that town, according to advices received by the French embassy here today. Reoprts to the embassy declare that 100,000 Germans are advancing through Luxemburg.

Paris, August 3.—German troops, mainly the regular border guardss, augmented by special detachments from the interior, are skirmishing near Belfast, one of the strongest of French fortresses near the border. Dispatches here say there have been several encounters between French and German patrols. Details are lacking.

Belfort is considered an impregnable fortress by the French. In the Franco-Prussian war of 1870 the citadel successfully withstood a three-months' siege by the Germans and only surrendered when news of the capitulation of Paris was received. The town was restored to France by the treaty of Frankfort and its defenses have since been strengthened.

Brussels, August 3.—A French soldier and a German officer were killed in a skirmish near Jenucherai, close to the border early today. Two Uhlans, of the regular German army, were captured.

Paris, August 3.—France was today declared in a state of siege. Henceforth, martial law will prevail. The government has not yet formally declared war ,but the decree issued today declares France and Algeria in a state of siege throughout the war.

Brussels, August 3. — German forces entered the village of Suarce, half a mile from the border, early today, established headquarters and requistioned all horses for military purposes.

London, August 3.—The French bassy, in an official statement issued at noon, denied emphatically that France has invaded Germany.

FORD PRICES REDUCED.

Cars Will Sell for $60 Cheaper This Year. Profit Sharing Plan.

An announcement of great interest to all those interested in automobiles is that of the Ford Company which has just named its prices for 1914-1915. A reduction of $60 per car is made from the prices heretofore in effect, the revised prices being as follows. Touring car, $490; runabout $440, town car, $690.

In addition the company agrees to make a further reduction to be paid purchasers of cars of from $40 to $60 per car if the output this year reaches 300,000 cars. As last years output was over 225,000. Tihs figure should be reached without any difficulty.

The Remschell Auto Sales Company of this city, is making preparations to sell a large number of cars under the new prices.

WIDOW MYSTERIOUSLY SHOT.

Man Roomer with Her Declares Tragedy Her Own Accident.

Pittsburg, August 3.—Efforts of the Coroner's office are centered on investigation of the mysterious shooting Saturday midnight of Mrs. Marie Brown, 26, a pretty widow of Kittanning, in rooms engaged a week ago by C. Waugaman, 30, in McKee's Rocks, a suburb. The two were supposed to be husband and wife, but after his arrest Waugaman admitted having a wife and children in Kittanning.

Others in the house were aroused by Waugaman's cry that "Marie had shot herself." The woman was found dead in her nightdress on the bedroom floor. Waugaman insists that, acting on a whim, she took a revolver from a dresser, and while examining it discharged it accidentally.

ENGLAND HAS DECIDED ON WAR

Germany's Violation of Belgian Neutrality Precipitates Clash.

WAR ONLY RECOURSE

Premier Asquith to Ask House of Commons for $250,000,000 as Initial Fund for Conflict.

London, August 3.—Following a speech by Sir Edward Grey, which left little to the imagination and showed conclusively that sentiment of the cabinet was for war with Germany, the House of Commons recessed until 7 o'clock tonight. At that time it is expected Premier Asquith will make a statement outlining the entire conclusions of the government. It is expected to be a declaration of war placing the entire blame for the break on Germany.

He will present a bill asking for $250,000,000 for war purposes. The sentiment of the commons is distinctly in favor of the bill. It will probably be passed unanimously.

Sir Edward Grey in his speech said, amidst frenzied cheering:

"England must now consider this crisis from the viewpoint of British honor and obligation, as we. as from her interest.

"If the German fleet bombards the French coast, we cannot stand aside and watch it. We have been given to understand that Germany is willing to agree that her fleet will not attack the northern coast of France, provided we will remain neutral."

London, August 3.—England has decided on war. Germany's violation of Belgium's neutrality was the last straw

The British ambassador at Berlin demanded that Begium's integrity be respected The Kaiser refused to agree.

This was communicated to the cabinet and, according to officials in close touch, it was agreed that there was nothing left but war.

Premier Asquith is expected to make this statement to the house of commons when it meets this afternoon. He will ask for $250,000,000 as an initial war fund, and it will be voted in a hurry.

The foreign office announced that Belgium has rejected the offer of Germany that the latter would respect Belgium territory in return for permission from Belgium for German troops to use the railroad across the former for the transport of a German army designed to invade France.

It is this last act in violation of neutrality laws that has forced England's hand and will bring war.

High officials say that war has already been declared and that Asquith will so anncunce to the commons.

BOY CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Richmond, August 3.—Charles Robinson, a 10 year old negro boy, was last night arrested charged with the murder of Virginia Robinson, his grandmother, who was found tied and starving in a closet in her room last Monday by neighbors. Neighbors who had known the aged woman for years swore out the warrant against the child. He was bailed for his appearance in the Juvenile Court this morning. after being taken to the Second Precinct Station last night.

Virginia Robinson was discovered huddled away in a closet at 2 East Federal Street by George Bradley, who had gone to the place to inquire after her condition. The grandson, Charles, is said to have circulated reports that his grandmother was sick, and this led to the visit. Bradley discovered her tied hand and foot, it has been said, and with her clothing stripped from her body. She was in a greatly weakened condition, and died at the Colored City Home on the second day after she was found, without having been able to speak.

THE PROHIBITION ISSUE.

Wets And Drys Marshaling Forces for Election in September.

The campaign for and against State-wide prohibition in Virginia, which will be voted upon in a special election on September 22, is now in full blast. The drys are still indulging dreams of tremendous majorities.

The quesion of taxes is beginning to cut a swath in the campaign. Virginia collects approximately $700,000 from the saloons and liquor houses in licenses. The "wets" are flooding the State with literature, setting forth the contention that the abolition of the saloon in the cities means the rural classes will have heavier taxes to pay in making up the lost revnue.

This fear is making many hard-headed farmers scratch their heads and wonder whether or not they had better leave the saloon alone in the city as long as the liquor traffic does not bother their farm hands. The campaign cry of "higher taxes" is the most effective weapon the "wets" have brought into the fight.

Both sides are fighting hard, and a record vote is expected. This vote would be larger, but for the fact that only those who were qualified to vote in the last Gubernatorial election have the right to cast ballots in the pending contest. Owing to the fact that Henry C. Stuart had no opposition for the Democratic nomination for Governor and in the general election, only 120,000 paid their poll taxes and qualified for voting. Approximately 140,000 have qualified for the Congressional elections. In the Ninth district, the "dry" strong-hold, the qualification for last year runs 10,000 below the number who have paid their poll assessments in order to vote in the fight between Representative Bascom Slemp and A. Tate Irvine for Congress.

The "wets" have plenty of money with which to conduct their campaign. The "drys," on the other hand, are making a fight with a small war chest.

Should Virginia go "dry" the breweries will not be driven from the State. The act, submitting the question, provides that breweries may continue to operate as long as they sell their product outside of Virginia.

WASHINGTON MAN DROWNED.

Thomas H. Brinkley Swept Beyond Depth—Body Recovered About an Hour Later.

Norfolk, Va., August 3.—While other members of his party splashed merrily about the shallow water close by, Thomas H. Brinkley, of Washington, was swept beyond his depth and drowned at Virginia Beach about noon yesterday before his friends knew he was in danger. The accident occurred just north of the flume.

As soon as the people with whom he was in bathing discovered he was missing the alarm was given up and down the beach. In a few minutes scores of bathers were swimming about the spot where he had gone down and surfmen with their boats were aiding in the work. An hour afterwards his body was seen floating near the shore in front of the old Princess Anne Hotel site. He was brought ashore and for an hour every effort was made to resuscitate him, but in vain.

All the usual methods were tried by Dr. E. H. Morrison and his coworkers, but the body had been in the water too long. When the body was recovered it was floating in about 10 feet of water. Friends of the drowned man said he could swim very little, if any at all, Brinkley was about 32 years old, and was manager of the Old Dutch Market in Washington. He came to the Beach several days ago for his vacation and was staying at the Atkinson Cottage.

FOUR BRITISH SHIPS SEIZED.

London, August 3.—Reports that Germany today seized four British steamers, property of the Great Central Railway, in the harbor of Hamment here. If it is confirmed, it will amount to an act of open hostility on Germany's part .

No details of the identity of the steamers is as yet obtainable.

MRS. HALL WANTS TO TELL HER STORY

Anxious to Go on Stand and Win Jury by Force of Narrative.

NO DECISION IS MADE

Attorneys Still Debating Advisability of Submitting Her to Fierce Cross-Examination.

Louisa, Va., August 3.—Whether Mrs. Elizabeth A. Hall, on trial for the murder of her husband, Victor K. Hall, on the morning of April 15, will go upon the witness stand in her own defense has not yet been decided, according to a statement made by Alexander T. Gordon, of the accused woman's counsel. It is said, however, that Mrs. Hall is anxious to take the stand, believing that she will be able, by her own compelling force, to convince the jury that she has told the truth in her narration of the murder. Mrs. Hall's story is that her husband answered a strange knocking on the store door on that fateful morning, and that immediately after she heard him exclaim, "Oh, Lordy!" and then the sound of a pistol shot and of his falling as he crumpled up under the assassin's bullet. Mrs. Hall has a certain ease of manner which will stand her in good stead if she takes the stand, but on the other hand, she opens up every avenue of attack which the prosecution could desire. She will be subjected to a terrible fire of cross-examination, an ordeal at which she may well stand aghast.

For instance, Victor Hall was found lying behind the counter, she said, several yards from the store door, and she will be asked to explain how it was possible for him to have walked so far after his powers of locomotion were paralyzed by the impact of the bullet in the left lobe of his brain. Then, too, it is said, she stated to detectives that she went to the pantry to awaken the little, colored servant, Becky Coates, and that she told Becky that Hall had been shot in the back of the head before she had examined the body. She will be asked how she knew this, and why she called Becky before going to the assistance of her mortally injured husband.

If Mrs. Hall takes the stand, it is generally believed that her fate will rest in her own hands—that the jury will cast its die on her testimony. Most of the people who arrived at the Hall store soon after the shooting were summoned as witnesses for the Commonwealth, and there is no one to corroborate Mrs. Hall's story of the events immediately preceding the murder; no one else, so far as it has been brought out, who heard that strange rapping on the door; no one who can explain how it was that Victor Hall was found dying behind the counter, so far from the door entrance to the store, with his head towards the counter and his feet, but a few inches from his own bedroom door. These facts, evident to several eyewitnesses, will be hard to explain, and if there be a plausible explanation for them the secret is still locked in Mrs. Hall's bosom.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.

William Smith was arrested yesterday at the instance of James Barrett, who alleged Smith had assaulted him with a bottle. When the case was called in the Police Court this morning the complainant could not be found and the accused was dismissed.

Randolph Stevenson, colored, was arrested yesterday upon complaint of Mary Copeland, colored, who alleged Stevenson assaulted her with a stick. The accused was brought before the Police Court this morning. The woman exhibited a wound upon the top of her head, which she alleged was inflicted by Stevenson. The latter denied the charge made against him and said the cut on her head was inflicted by the woman herself during a scuffle with him. Stevenson was fined $5.

DEATH OF REV. DR. C. H. RYLAND

Former Alexandria Pastor Passes Away in Richmond Yesterday.

Deceased Had Charge of First Baptist Church Up to 1873—Made Many Friends While Here.

Richmond, August 3.—Rev. Dr. Charles Hill Ryland, secretary and treasurer of Richmond College since 1873, one of the most widely known and respected citizens of Richmond, died at his home, 839 West Grace street, at 8:30 o'clock Saturday night, after a brief illness. Dr. Ryland had been in failing health for the past two years, but suffered a slight stroke of paralysis about a month ago, and after a few days' confinement to his room, died from heart trouble brought on by affection of the kidneys.

Dr. Ryland was born at Fleetwood, near Bruington, in King and Queen County, Va., on January 22, 1836, the son of Samuel Peachy Ryland and Catherine Gaines Hill.

After graduation from the seminary, Dr. Ryland served as pastor of the First Baptist Church at Alexandria until 1873, when he was called to the position of financial secretary and treasurer of Richmond College, a position which he held until two years ago, when failing health forced him to resign the position of treasurer, but until the time of his death, Dr. Ryland remained secretary of the Board of Trustees of Richmond College and college librarian.

For twenty years, in addition to his work at Richmond College, Dr. Ryland was pastor of the Baptist churches at Walnut Grove, Cool Springs and Taylorsville, and preached every Sunday at one or more of the churches. This work he was forced to give up when the cares of his office at the college and failing health made it impossible for him to continue his work with them .

The greatest source of pride with Dr. Ryland was the fact that in the forty years during which he handled the funds of Richmond College there was never incurred the loss of a single dollar, nor did the college ever lost a dollar by unwise investments in all that time. During his connection with the finances of the college he saw its resources grow from nothing to the present endowment of $1,052,000, in the raising of which amount he took an active part.

In addition to his connection with Richmond College, Dr. Ryland was a trustee of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Ky.; a member of the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, and a member of the education board of the church.

Dr. Ryland is survived by his wife and seven children.

ENGLAND MUST FIGHT.

The Times Says it is Necessary for Its Honor And Self Preservation.

London, August 3.—The government has assumed control of all wireless transmission. A special Gazette, announcing this fact, says that the government, in the present emergency, has taken over control of wireless telegraphy and that the use of wireless telegraphy and that the use of wireless by foreign vessels while in British territorial waters will be subject to such rules as may be made by the admiralty.

The Times, in a special war edition, says it is plain and acknowledged that the duty and interest of Great Britain, which consists in the support of France against attack by Germany and the preservation of the neutrality of Belgium, Holland and Luxemburg against German invasion, must be fulfilled.

"There is no room for difference of opinion," the Times continues. "The prospect before the government is that of having to fight not only for its honor, but for self preservation against attack on the whole foundation on which the peace and civilization of Europe are based."

WANT ROUTE CHANGED

Residents of Rosemont, Braddock Heights and Mt. Ida Will Hold Meeting Tonight.

Residents of Rosemont, Braddock Heights and Mt. Ida, in Alexandria County, northwest of Alexandria City, will protest against the expenditure by the county of $30,000 for the new Mt. Vernon Boulevard between Washington and Alexandria, unless the route is changed to run through those places instead of the route through the town of Potomac.

George Washington Lewis, chairman of a committee which met several days ago to consider the question, has called a meeting of the residents of the three communities to be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, in this city, at which time a definite plan will be agreed upon.

Under the contract which was signed Tuesday between the supervisors of Alexandria County and the representatives of the Department of Agriculture of the United States Government, the new road will start at the southeast corner of the Arlington estate, where it will join the road recently completed by the War Department from the end of the highway bridge, and be built via Hume Springs, Del Ray and St. Elmo, coming into Alexandria by North Washington street extended. The Rosemont and Braddock people want the route from Hume Springs to be change so that the new road will follow the old Russell route, entering this city by King street extended.

It is said that unless the route is changed the residents of the dissatisfied suburbs will oppose the expenditure of any money by the county on the highway.

A CONTRAST IN FIGURES.

Receipts and Expenditures of the City of Alexandria Seventy-two Years Ago.

In a mass of junk at Henry Baader's Sons' warehouse an exhibit of the receipts and expenditures of the corporation of Alexandria for the year ending March 1, 1842, was exhumed today. It is printed upon a single sheet of paper about one-third the size of a page of the Alexandria Gazette. The exhibit is signed by Robert H. Miller, George I. Thomas, Thomas Semmes and Benj. S. Kinsy, auditing committee.

The figures stand in marked contrast to those published yearly by the city at this time. The receipts were $51,529.21.

During the year the city received $2,657 from rent for the fish wharf during fishing season and $183 after the season. The fines collected in the Police Court amounted to $395.

In the expenditures it is shown that the Clerk of Council and auditor received $400, the treasurer $200, expenses of Fire Department, $575; the Light Department, $487.99; public schools, $706.12.

FOUND IN THE WATER.

David Grayson, colored, who lives in Fairfax county, 3 miles west of Alexandria, was found unconscious and partly submerged in Hoff's Run, at the head of King street, late Saturday night by two men who were passing that way. Grayson was pulled out and Policemen Young and Talbot had him conveyed to police headquarters. Yesterday he was carried to the Alexandria Hospital where he was plared under the care of Dr. Walter A. Warfield. His injuries are not considered dangerous, Grayson's position when discovered indicated that he had fallen into the run from the King street culvert.

Clinton Adams Shoots Wife and Kills Himself at Ballston.

Clinton Adams, aged 30, living in Washington, shot his wife twice and then killed himself in the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Gregory, on McKinley Ave., Ballston, Alexandria county, Saturday night. Adams fired a .38-caliber through his wife's left arm and a second bullet into her breast, then rushed to the rear of the house, where he fired the fatal shot through his own heart.

Mrs. Adams is not seriously wounded. Dr. W. C. Welburn, of Ballston, extracted the bullet which lodged in her breast, and she is expected to recover. Adams' body is at Ives' undertaking establishment, in Clarendon, where the funeral services will be held tomorrow.

LATE FRANK C. SPINKS

Common Council Meets and Takes Suitable Action—Funeral This Afternoon.

A special meeting of the City Council of Alexandria was held Saturday night for the purpose of taking action on the death of City Councilman Frank C. Spinks. A committee consisting of Julian Y. Williams, Howard W. Smith and Urban S. Lambert, were named by Vice-President Thomas Chauncey to draft suitable resolutions. It was decided that the members of Council would attend in a body.

Meetings of Alexandria Lodge of Elks and the Relief Hook and Ladder Company were also held Saturday night when resolutions were passed by both organizations regretting the death of Mr. Spinks.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 5 o'clock from the family residence, 1448 Duke street. Services will be conducted by the Rev. J. W. Duffey, pastor of the Washington street Methodist Church, and the burial service of the Masons and the Elks will be said at the grave.

The pallbearers will be as follows: F. F. Marbury, George H. Robinson, George E. Butler, J. Edward Shinn, Jacob Brill and James W. Bales.

SENT TO THE WORKHOUSE.

Police Make Raid on Disorderly House—Women Given Ninety Days.

The police Saturday night made a descent upon a house in the northeastern section of the city and arrested Maggie Lewis and Pauline Pickney, who conduct the place, and H. Stokes, George Penn and William Lewis, all colored, who were found therein. The charge of conducting a disorderly house was preferred against the women and that of improper conduct against the men.

They were brought before the Police Court this morning. The men alleged that they worked regularly and were lodgers in the house. The women, it was shown, had no employment. They were sent to the workhouse for ninety days and the men released.

FELL THROUGH TRESTLE.

George Willett, employed by the Washington-Virginia Railway Company as a bridge carpenter, slipped through the trestle over Little Hunting Creek, near Mount Vernon, Saturday afternoon and was severely injured about the hips. He was brought to the Alexandria Hospital, where he was attended by Dr. Walter A. Warfield.

REGATTA SATURDAY.

Many People Gather on River Front to Witness Contest.

The Old Dominion Boat Club held a regatta Saturday afternoon on the Potomac which was witnessed by a large number of spectators. The following events were on the program. Double canoe quarter mile—Reardon and Callahan, first; King and Miller, second; Wingate and Spofford, third.

Centipede against four-oared shell, three-quarters of a mile—won by former with crew of B. Pitts, stroke; Callahan, King and Wingate, Crew of shell, Douglass, stroke; Fawcett, Spofford and Reardon.

POLICE COURT.

(Justice H. B. Caton Presiding.)

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Maggie Lewis and Pauline Pinkney, both colored, charged with conducting a disorderly house, were sent to the workhouse for 90 days.

J. M. Lancaster and Edward Brookes, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, were dismissed.

LABOR AND PROHIBITION.

Issue Discussed by President of State Federation at Newport News.

Newport News, August 3.—Speaking in opposition to state wide prohibition, E. C. Davidson, president of the State Federation of Labor, Saturday night declared at a meeting of the Central Labor Union that local option is the only feasible form of prohibition and, if properly applied, will work to the better interests of all parties concerned. His speech in part follows:

"The laboring men of Virginia have reason for deep concern in the outcome of the election next September. There is at stake more than a principle of government. Upon the result depends directly the employment and welfare of thousands of workingmen whose interests can not be injured without working a corresponding injury to Trades Unions.

"I touch upon the big issue which confronts Virginia today with a fully realization of the responsibility that I carry as head of your State organization. I would not perform my full duty if I failed at this time to sound a warning against the prohibition law, which it is proposed to substitute for the local option system now in force in Virginia.

"It is not necessary for the Virginia State Federation of Labor to re-assert its independence of the saloon interests. The organization has consistently pursued a temperance policy and exerted its power and influence to reduce the abuses of liquor. What I say now is in the full belief that I am forwarding the cause of true temperance and with it the cause of the Virginia workingman.

"'We have now a local option law under which each self-governing community decides the licensing question in accordance with the will of its local majority. It is right that it should be so. Wherever prohibition is desired it is put in force. Where it does not meet with the approval of the majority saloons are not licensed.

"In my opinion, the repeal of this Democratic law and the substitution of state-wide prohibition would strike a blow at real temperance and encourage a general evasion of the law which would bring evils in its train far worse than those from which we fled. I do not speak idly. My experience and observation in North Carolina, Tennessee and West Virginia warrant me in making the statement that statewide prohibition is an utter failure and that instead of furthering the cause of temperance it retards it.

"There are union men in this State who will be thrown out of employment if prohibition goes into effect. They have a right to appeal to us to aid them in their hour of need, and it is the duty of every workingman in Virginia to join with them in opposing prohibition. I am glad that Virginia laboring men can perform this act of loyalty in the full consciousness that they are serving their State and guarding her against a law pernicious in theory and a proven failure in practice.

"Look at the people of Georgia. Has the moral or material welfare of the people of that State improved any as the result of statewide prohibition Not by any means. The law is absolutely disregarded. The condition of children and women in the factories of the prohibition states have not improved. We, as workingmen, should not sacrifice the thousands of brothers who work at these industries. If we do, the men we depose of employment by our vote will be justified in taking our jobs.

"What has prohibition done for Maine workingmen? The laborers there are worse off in every line of endeavor than in any state in the Union. They work longer hours for less pay than in any state in the United States. Give men short hours, better wages and sanitary conditions and they will progress along temperances lines and education and cultivate a stronger will than in any other way.

"The local option law is the best yet devised. Under it any community can have real prohibition. Newport News can have it if it wants it, but if Lynchburg tries to impose it on you, you will not stand for it. Crime and degredation are due to the oppressive conditions of industry, not to drink. It took me years to reach the conclusion that poverty is the cause of drink and got the reverse.

"I have no connection with the Anti-Saloon League or the Local Option League, but believe in that good old doctrine of home rule and local self-government. Statewide prohibition means search and seizure laws and I am one who believes that whenever a man enters another's home without his consent except to arrest a murderer or a thief, he should be shot.

"Any time the church has ruled the state the people have been compelled to rise in their might and destroy their oppresors."

NEWSPAPER SUED.

Editor of Roanoke Times Proceeds Against Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

Norfolk, Va., August 3.—Alfred B. Williams, editor of the Roanoke Times, has sworn out a warrant for criminal libel against the Virginian-Pilot. The basis of his complaint is the publication by the Virginian-Pilot on July 13 of remarks said to have been made by the Rev. B. Lacy Hoge in his sermon at the Spurgeon Memorial Baptist Church on Sunday night, July 12, concerning Mr. Williams' reports on prohibition in Georgia.

Mr. Williams has brought civil suit against Mr. Hoge, who denies the language attributed to him by the reporter, while the reporter, who gave the account of the sermon, insists that his report was accurate. It is impossible now to have the civil case heard before October 1.

Mr. Williams said today that he has no animosity against the Virginian-Pilot, but as a libel against him has appeared and there is a direct conflict of veracity as to who is responsible for it, he has instituted a criminal proceeding to have the facts developed under oath.

Witnesses summoned for the prosecution are the Rev. B. Lacy Hoge, Charles T. Cobin, the reporter for the Virginian-Pilot, and Tazewell H. Lamb, city editor. The summons was served on Lucien Stake, manager of the Virginian-Pilot. The case has been set for hearing before Police Justice Barron on Tuesday morning, August 4, at 10 o'clock.

PREPARING FOR GREAT STRUGGLE.

All hopes that the war which has so suddenly broken out between Austria and Servia could be localized seems to have vanished, and quiet and conservative old England, which has avoided a conflict with any other European nation so long, now has on her war paint and probably before tomorrow's sun shall have risen the mother country will be bristling in martial array. It was hoped that Brittania would be able to remain neutral during the terrible clash of arms, now inevitable, but the violation by the German Emperor of the Belgian neutrality has rendered this impossible, and English, French, German, Russian and Servian soldiers will soon be struggling for supremacy.

In the meantime the little nation of Servia, which brought on the trouble, will be as a small boy who has set older brothers fighting.

Germany, Austria-Hungary, Russia, France and England seem determined to enter the struggle to stay, while smaller countries are being placed on a war footing to meet eventualities.

The red horse with its rider is now prancing the earth, and perilous times seem almost at our doors. This steed may be followed by the black horse carrying a rider with balances in his hand, portraying famine. The pale green equine (death) is scheduled to follow in their wake

ALEXANDRIANS CAUGHT FROM HOME.

The marooning in Europe of about two-score Alexandrians by the sudden rise of a dismal war cloud is occasioning great uneasiness to the relatives of those who have had the pleasure of their excursion marred, as well as to their many friends and acquaintances. At present there is no telling when the embargo shall have been lifted. Those who have been caught upon the continent have cause for anxiety, as the running of railway trains has in many cases been brought to a standstill. In a few hours the steamers of the British lines will necessarily be tied up, when tourists in England will find themselves bottled up also.

Aside from the annoyances and inconveniences incident to the war cloud, those so unfortunate as not to possess coin are facing a still more serious picture. Letters of credit and checks are being refused, nothing out root coin appealing to hotelkeepers or others.

To be dead broke and forty miles from home is an old adage. To be several thousand miles away and in want with money orders for thousands in one's pockets is like a man perishing with thirst upon a raft in mid-ocean surrounded by water.

Many Americans, including certain Alexandrians, have been dreaming of making tours in Europe during the next few weeks. Some have never before had an opportunity to go abroad. They are naturally vexed that the war should break out at a time when they were about to pack their trunks.

LACK OF MONEY WILL NOT PERMIT LONG WAR.

The report that the rich banking houses on the European continent will not loan a dollar to carry on the gigantic war now being stayed across the Atlantic means that the struggle will be a short one as without money and lots of it war cannot continue very long in these times. It is well known that the money chests of the nations now at each other's throats are not in condition to stand a long and heavy strain upon them. Millions upon millions are required for every day's expense and the money must be in cash to pay for the movement of troops, the sailing and operation of warships and the feeding of vast armies.

While it may seem foolish to make a prediction now as to the length of the present conflict we are of the opinion that it will be a short one and that 90 days will be long enough to bring about peace.

SERIOUS CRIME CHARGED.

Robert Peak, Boone Furance Farmer, Under Arrest.

Pulaski, Va., Aug. 3.—The arrest of Robert Peck, of the Boon Furnace section of the county, charged with the murder of his own daughter, Myrtle Peak, aged about thirteen years, has caused a great sensation. The facts connected with the case are such, if true, as to make the case one of the most revolting which has ever been brought to the attention of the Pulaski county officers. The circumstances connected with the crime are such as cannot be fully revealed in print, if the father is as guilty of the charge preferred as alleged. No more degrading crime could be conceived than that which it is said will be revealed in coonnection with case when it comes up for hearing. The daughter, in delicate condition, died Tuesday morning about 8 o'clock as a result, it is alleged, of the cruel treatment of her father, who is also held responsible for her condition. Reports have it that he beat her in an effort to compel her to lay the responsibility of her condition upon some one else, when he himself was the guilty party. It is claimed that there are witnesses who can testify as to the story as related by the girl of the events which finally led up to the crime which caused her death.

Following the burial of the body last week the facts of the case were made known to Commonwealth's Attorney F. W. Morton, who immediately swore out a warrant before Squire W. R. Bush against Peak. The warrant charges that Peak did feloniously and of malice aforethought kill and murder his daughter, Myrtle Peak, on July 27th. Sheriff Joe Graham and Deputy R. Richardson left late yesterday afternoon for Boon Furnace to execute the warrant. They found the man at home. When the warrant was served on Peak he displayed no interest in the matter, not even asking with what he was charged. The only statement made by him at all was on the return to the Pulaski jail, stating that a number of persons had tried to get him to run off, but he would not. He is a man of ignorant type, and as yet does not seem to take in the situation of the punishment for such a crime as he is charged with. He has a wife and several children, and is about 30 years old.

Changes in Southern.

With a view to perfecting the efficiency of the accounting and auditing department of the Southern Railway, Comptroller A. H. Plant has reorganized that branch of the service, causing shifts in almost its entire personnel, which became effective today. The comptroller has created two new positions—assistant to the comptroller and assistant auditor of disbursement J. B. Duke, formerly auditor of revenue, now becomes assistant to the comptroller; J. A. Robinson, formerly auditor of freight accounts succeeds to the office of auditor of revenue, and F. A. Truan, formerly chief clerk of the freight auditing department, has been appointed auditor of freight accounts.

GERMAN SHIP SEIZED.

Novorossiysk, Russia, August 3.—The German steamer Atlas has been seized by the port authorities, who have also dispatched vessels in pursuit of German steamers which sailed from here on Saturday previous to the war declaration.

Novorossiysk is on the east coast of the Black Sea and is an important shipping port. The Atlas is a German oil tanker.

IN CHANCERY:

An affidavit having been made and filed that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, upon the application of the complainant in writing, stating specifically the last known address of the defendant, the Court on this 30th day of July, 1914, doth grant the following order of publication:

The object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant a divorce from the bond of matrimony from the defendant on the ground of wilful desertion and abandonment for a period of three years prior to the institution of this suit; and it is further ordered that the defendant do appear within fifteen days after due publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect his interests in this suit, and it is further ordered that a copy of this order of publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House in the said city, on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order, and that a copy of said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this Court, addressed to the said John E. White, at St. Louis, Missouri, General Delivery, his last known place of address.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism?
When relief from rheumatic pains may be had at so small a cost it is surprising that anyone should fail to avail himself of it. Joseph Copparelli, Canastota, N. Y., suffered intensely with pains due to rheumatism in his limbs for a long time A friend told him about Chamberlain's Liniment. One application relieved him wonderfully, and a few days' treatment effected a cure. Many others have found quick relief by applying this liniment. For sale by all dealers.

WAR MOVES IN FAR EAST.

British Asiatic Fleet Concentrating at Hongkong and Triple Alliance at Tsingtau.

Tokio, August 3.—The western shores of the Pacific today showed active preparations for war. The British Asiatic fleet is assembling at Hongkong and a complete concentration of German, Austrian and Italian warships has taken place at Tsingtau, the seaport of the German possession of Kiaochau.

Fourteen German, three Austrian and two Italian warships are at that port. The North German Lloyd Line steamer Prinz Eitel Friedrich, accompanied by the German gunboat Jaguar, also has arrived at Tsing-Tau from Shanghai. Other Austrian and German commercial ships are remaining in port.

The warships of Japan are making every preparation for possible eventualities and are ready to sail at a moment's notice. The Japanese dreadnaught Himyi made a successful trial trip today.

German resident in Japant subject to military service, have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to return home.

The transportation of freight between Japan and Siberia and Europe has been stopped. Efforts are being made to secure the vessels of neutral countries to move cargoes destined for Europe. All insurance is at war rates.

FRANCE AND RUSSIA.

Severance of Relationship Between Two Countries Dramatic.

St. Petersburg, August 3.—The rupture of diplomatic relations between Russia and Germany took place under dramatic circumstances.

It was midnight Friday when Count von Pourtales, the German Ambassador to Russia, visited Foreign Minister Sazanoff and asked for an urgent interview.

As soon as he was received he formally called upon Russia to cease her mobilization in 12 hours. The allotted period passed without an answer.

At 7 o'clock Saturday evening Count von Portales again called upon M. Sazanoff and again asked if Russia would cease mobilizing her force. To this the Russian statesman replied:

"Inasmuch as the Russian Government has not answered within the time you specified, it follows that Russia has declined to agree with your demand."

Three times Count von Pourtales repeated the German ultimatum, and each time the Russian Foreign Minister met his statement with the same firm negative. Finally Count von Pourtales rose from his chair, bowed to the Foreign Minister and left the room, without another word. He and the members of his staff at once departed from St. Petersburg by way of Finland.

SOCIALIST CANDIDATE.

Rev. S. C. Weatherly to Run for Congress Against Andrew Jackson Montague.

Richmond, August 3.—Carlton McCarthy, John Hirschberg and Andrew Jackson Montague are not to be without opposition next November. The Republicans may be too divided between moose and the elephant to put out a rival ticket, but there lives the Socialist party, which, undaunted, year after year, meets in solemn conclave to nominate candidates for State, and municipal office and raise its voice against a capitalistic age.

The Socialists of Richmond and the Third Congressional District met at Fraterniay Hall yesterday and nominated for Congress to oppose Andrew Jackson Montague, the Democratic nominee, Rev. S. C. Weatherly, of Highland Springs. They nominated R. A. Tyree and J. T. Watkins as the Socialist candidates for election to the Administrative Board in opposition to Messrs. Hirschberg and McCarthy, who were named on July 10 by the Democracy.

All three candidates will run on a strictly socialistic platform, "declaring" for public ownership of the trusts, railways, street railways and other public utilities—an ambitious platform, but the socialistic idea is a big one.

LAZINESS WINS DIVORCE.

Master Recommends Freedom from Man Who Wouldn't Work.

Shamokin, Pa., August 3.—A divorce in the case of Mrs. Ethel K. Charles against J. Paul Charles, of Shamokin, has been recommended by Master Snyder.

Desertion was alleged. Testimony of the wife was to the effect that her husband was "too lazy to work," and her witnesses corroborated her. Numerous positions were obtained for him, the testimony showed, but he flatly refused any of them.

The couple were married in Sunbury in 1910, but never really lived together, the wife says, because of her husband's love for idleness.

FALL FROM WINDOW FATAL.

Aged Man Topples Over Sill and Lands on Bricks.

Philadelphia, August 3. — John Gould, a 73-year-old inmate of the Old Man's Home, Thirty-ninth and Baring streets, who was well liked because of his considerate nature, died yesterday from the effects of a shock received a week ago when he fell from the window of his room on the second floor to the ground.

The aged man had been ill for several weeks. Despite this, however, he jumped to his feet and made his way back to his room. He had just retired for the night and while half asleep thought he heard some one calling him. After dressing he started toward what he thought was the door, but was the window. He fell over the sill into the yard below.

Not So Strange After All.

You may think it strange that so many people are cured of stomach trouble by Chamberlain's Tablets. You would not, however, if you should give them a trial. They strengthen and invigorate the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Mrs. Rosie Rish, Wabash, Ind., writes: "Nothing did me the least good until I began using Chamberlain's Tablets. It is decidedly the best medicine for stomach trouble I have ever used." For sale by all dealers.

THE SEA OF LOT.

Its Ridge of Sodom and Its Fetid but Clear Blue Waters.

It is in the southeastern part of Palestine where the famous Dead sea lies. In the Old Testament it was known as the Sea of the Plain or Salt sea, but it is known today by the Arabs as the Sea of Lot. Its surface, which is lower than any other body of water, is 1,292 feet below the level of the Mediterranean.

The Dead sea is fed by the river Jordan from the north, but has no outlet, depending entirely upon evaporation. A portion of the sea is surrounded by cliffs which are destitute of vegetation. On the south shore is the ridge of rock salt, seven miles long and 600 feet high, known as the ridge of Sodom. Lava beds, sulphur and volcanic slag prove the existence of volcanic agencies at some period. The lake still casts up pieces of asphalt when the environs of the Dead sea are visited by earthquake.

Its proportion of saline matter is so great that it contains more than eight times as much as the ocean, and, while it is exceedingly fetid, yet its water is as blue as that of the Mediterranean, and to the bather it is very refreshing, and owing to its specific gravity it is difficult to sink. Nothing living exists within the waters of the Dead sea.—Buffalo Express.

JOHN STOWE'S REWARD.

The Beggar Historian Got Royal Permission to Solicit Alms.

James I. on March 8, 1603, granted letters patent under the great seal to John Stowe, London's great historian, authorizing him to beg. The letters patent of James I. authorized Stowe to collect the voluntary contributions of the people. The letter recites that:

"Whereas, Our loving subject, John Stowe, a very aged and worthy member of our city of London, this five and forty years hath to his great charge and with neglect of his ordinary means of maintenance, for the general good as well of posterity as of the present age, compiled and published diverse necessary books and chronicles, and therefore we, in recompense of his labors and for the encouragement to the like, have in our royal inclination been pleased to grant letters patent under our great seal of England, dated March 8, 1603, thereby authorizing him to collect among our loving subjects their voluntary contributions and kind gratuities."

John Stowe died on April 5, 1605, and was buried in the parish Church of St. Andrew Undershaft, where his monument, erected by his widow, is still to be seen.—London Stray Stories.

A Journalist Bought Suez.

The journalist is often the man behind the statesman, but he seldom gets the credit. Who was it that induced Mr. Disraeli to buy the Suez canal shares which have proved so abundantly good an investment, with dividends that are represented not only by money, though even from that point of view it is the best investment that a state has ever made? Fleet street knows and honors the name of Mr. Frederick Greenwood both for that reason and for many another. But how many outside the world of journalism realize that but for Mr. Greenwood the Suez canal shares would probably have been purchased by a rival continental power? The question was one among those put in a "general intelligence" examination paper a little time back at a certain school. Only one boy was able to answer it correctly, and he was the son of the prime minister.—London Chronicle.

Discordant Thoughts.

In wandering through your mental pleasure grounds, whenever you come upon an ugly intruder of a thought which might bloom into some poisonous emotion, such as fear, envy, hate, worry, remorse, anger and the like, there is only one right way to treat it, writes Robert H. Schauffler in the Atlantic. Pull it up like a weed, drop it upon the rubbish heap as promptly as if it were a stinging nettle and let some harmonious thought grow in its place. There is no more reckless consumer of all kinds of exuberance than the discordant thought, and weeding it out saves such an astonishing amount of eau de vie wherewith to water the garden of joy that with it in hand every man may be his own Burbank.

His Alibi.

"If you are innocent," said a lawyer to his client, an old darky, who was charged with stealing a ham, "we ought to be able to prove an alibi."

"I don' specs we kin," the darky replied doubtfully.

"At what time was the ham stolen?"

"'Bout 'lebben o'clock, dey say."

"Well, where were you between 11 o'clock and midnight—in bed?"

"No, sah. I was hidin' de ham."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Eagerly Communicative.

"Secrets!" exclaimed Mr. Meekton. "I spend hours trying to make an impression on Henrietta by thinking up something to tell her that she doesn't know."—Washington Star.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months.

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

IT IS EASIER TO SAVE THE HAIR YOU HAVE Than to Grow New

The tendency to put off until tomorrow what we should do today accounts for most of the bald heads we see in the front row.

Newbro's Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. The dandruff is destroyed by its use and a condition of health maintained in the hair and scalp.

Nearly everyone has hair troubles of some description which Herpicide will correct. Don't wait until it is too late.

It is conceded to be the standard hair remedy and is recommended and applied by all the best hair dressers and barbers.

Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.

The Case of L. L. Cantelou. . .

The case of L. L. Cantelou, Clarendon, Texas, is similar to that of many others who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says, "After trying a doctor for several months, and using different kinds of medicine for my wife who had been troubled with severe bowel complaint for several months, I bought a 25c bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using the second bottle she was entirely cured." For sale by all dealers.

At a Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, continued and held at Courthouse of the said City on Thursday, July 9th, 1914.

Present, Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge.

Vs.

John Nauman, Defendant.

IN CHANCERY.

An affidavit having been duly made, as required by law, that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, and that he cannot be found within the jurisdiction of this State, and the sergeant having made a return upon the original process or summons issued herein that the defendant is a non-resident of his bailiwick, and application having been duly made in open court for an order of publication against the said defendant to appear and answer a bill in chancery filed by the complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of wilful desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit, and an order of publication having been duly granted in open court, it is therefore ordered that said defendant do appear here within 15 days after due publication hereof to answer the suit of complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of wilful desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit, and to do what may be necessary to protect his interest in this suit. And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in Alexandria City, Virginia, and that a copy be sent by registered mail by the clerk of this court to the last known place of address, residence and abode of defendant, to wit: State Hospital for the Insane, Norristown, Pennsylvania, as stated in the application for this order of publication, which shall be certified by the clerk of this court, and that a copy be posted at the front door of this court on or before the next rule day of this court.

Tuxedo—the Most Enjoyable and the Most Healthful Smoke

THE most enjoyable smoke is a pipe. But many men deny themselves this pleasure because they have had unhappy experiences with pipe tobaccos.

Likely you have paid 35 cents to 50 cents for a tin of "fancy mixture," and it burned your mouth or throat, or was unpleasantly strong.

Too bad—but you got the wrong tobacco. The hundreds of thousands of men who have tried

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

have found the answer to their smoke problems. Tuxedo is the mildest tobacco made. It cannot bite the tongue or dry the throat.

And it's economical. There are 40 pipefuls in a ten-cent tin. You can't get any better tobacco because nothing better grows than the mellow, perfectly aged Burley leaf used in Tuxedo.

If you try Tuxedo for a month and cut out other smokes, you will not only have had the best month of smoking you have ever had in your life, but you will have made a mighty big saving in your pocket-money!

NEWS OF THE DAY

A German banker, crossing the frontier in an automobile containing $1,400,000 in gold, was held up by French troops and the gold was taken from him. The banker was given a check on the Bank of France in exchange.

An automobile containing ex-Mayor A. C. Houghton and his daughter, Miss Mary Houghton, and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Hutton, of New York, went over a precipice at Powhatan, Va., yesterday. Mrs. Hutton was killed instantly and Miss Houghton was probably fatally hurt. The other occupants were cut and bruised. Repair work on the road interfered with the operation of the car.

It was rumored in France yesterday that the sixteen-year-old son of Gaston Calmette has murdered Joseph Caillaux, whose wife killed his father. Confirmation of the rumor is impossible so far.

The Kronprinzessin Cecelie, of he North German Lloyd Line, carrying millions in gold, has been intercepted by four British cruisers. They are said to be escorting her to Southampton. With the big German liner and her great cargo of gold in their charge the British cruisers could capture her instantly if war should be declared by England and Germany. The gold was consigned to British and French bankers. It is assumed that England has determined to see that it is properly delivered to the consignees.

As a result of trouble growing out of the election of a school trustee on the headwaters of Rockhouse Creek, Ky., a desperate pitched battle was fought Saturday evening between members of the Hall and Quillen families, in which four were killed.

The Statewide primary in Kentucky Saturday for selection of United States Senatorial candidates was marked by disturbances in Floyd County. Hall Flannery and A. B. Barnett, farmers, engaged in a pistol duel. Flannery opened fire on one of Barnett's sons, and Barnett immediately shot and killed Flannery. W. J. Reynolds, a friend of Flannery, shot and seriously wounded A. B. Barnett, six balls entering his body. Barnett died tonight.

Ten thousand rifles for the Nationalist volunteers were loaded at Ballychannon, County Donegal, yesterday, and are being brought to Dublin.

ITALY'S STAND IN DOUBT.

Official Statement Held by Some to Mean Neutrality—By Others that She Will Aid Allies.

Rome, August 3.—The war situation, so far as Italy is concerned, was considered more grave yesterday. The censorship has succeeded in suppressing all news except a short, colorless official statement that "Italy is calm and will not mobilize, but will conform her conduct to treaty obligations."

This statement is interpreted differently here. According to the opinion of some it means the neutrality of Italy, while others believe that Italy will participate in the conflict only in case the central powers sustain a reverse.

Meanwhile all prefects in the kingdom have warned the press not to publish any military news or movements of troops.

The warships of the kingdom are under the same penalty as in the Italo-Turkish War. Apprehension is felt at the lack of coal, owing to Italy's supply being entirely English. Efforts are being made to secure American coal.

FIGHTING IN THE AIR.

Twenty-five Germans Dashed to Death in Aerial Encounter.

London, August 3.—It is reported here that while a German Zeppelin war airship was maneuvering over Areylesforges yesterday afternoon a French aviator in a monoplane went clean through the envelope of the airship, which immediately collapsed, and its 25 occupants were dashed to death. The monoplane also was wrecked and the aviator killed. The aviator who destroyed the dirigible is said to have been Roland Garros.

London, August 3.—A dispatch from Paris says that two officers and twenty men of a German patrol were killed at Longwy, and that the German attack was repelled.

The Standard reports that German and French aviators met in the air during the engagement at Longwy, and that the Frenchman shot the German, who fell 300 feet and was killed.
